

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
AT CHATTANOOGA

NAOMI N. DUFRINE,)
)
Plaintiff,)
v.) No. 1:22-cv-099-DCLC-SKL
)
LONNIE SHEPARD, et al.,)
)
Defendants.)

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE ISSUED TO ROBERT A. COX AND RONNA D. KINSELLA

Robert A. Cox (“Cox”) and Ronna D. Kinsella (“Kinsella”) are listed as counsel of record for Defendant Silver Trucking, LLC, but Cox and Kinsella are not admitted in this Court. Despite the Clerk’s efforts to obtain compliance with E.D. Tenn. L.R. 83.5(b)(1) governing pro hac vice admission, Cox and Kinsella have not moved to be admitted or to withdraw from the case.¹ Accordingly, it is ORDERED that Cox and Kinsella SHALL SHOW CAUSE in writing on or before June 7, 2022, why they each should not be held in contempt or otherwise sanctioned for their actions, or lack thereof, concerning this matter. In the event that proper notices/motions to withdraw or motions for admittance (including proper registration for the Court’s electronic case filing pursuant to Rule 5 of the Court’s Electronic Case Filing Rules and Procedures), are filed by Cox and Kinsella prior to June 7, 2022, this show cause order shall be deemed satisfied.

SO ORDERED.

ENTER:

s/ Susan K. Lee

SUSAN K. LEE
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

¹ The Clerk’s office notified Cox and Kinsella that they are not in compliance with E.D. Tenn. L.R. 83.5(b)(1), by a Notice of Deficiency on April 27, 2022 [Doc. 5]. The Notice of Deficiency instructed them to submit a motion for admission pro hac vice or the matter would be referred to a magistrate judge.